OUR CONCERT.

I think every Parent who favoured us with their company on Monday evening last went away perfectly satisfied, for undoubtedly a very fine programme had been arranged and we are deeply indebted to those friends who gave their services on our behalf. It was good to see Mr. Lloyd once again and we trust that he will come over to our Sing songs at Christmas time.

Captain Chopping made the most of his opportunity when addressing the parents, and the results will no doubt be that a greater interest will be shown in the Company's welfare, and the boys will show a greater loyalty to the Company of which they have the honour to be Members.

Happy Boys.

Remember the date. What a show it ought to be. This year the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 5th Enfield Companies are to take part in the procession, and the various branches of Brigade work will be illustrated to the public of Enfield in tabeau form. What a glorious chance of advertising the B.B. It is hoped that each Officer and boy will do his best to make this a huge success, as apart from advertising the B.B. we shall also be helping the Enfield War Memorial Hospital.

EDUCATIONAL TEST.

The following are the marks awarded in the Educational Test:—
Sgt. Head 60, Cpl. A. Grigg 56, Pte. L. Grigg, 65, S. Sgt. Jenkins 52, Cpl. Cokenden and Private Worling 41, Cpl. Warren 36, and Sgt. Tatam 24.

FOOTBALL.

Our 1st XI on Saturday last defeated the Football Favourites by 6 goals to 1: this is really excellent. Goalscorers F. Pegram 2, A. Grigg 2, G. Burton and A. Barwick 1 each. This is a team worth supporting, so turn up and give them a cheer.

HISTORY OF THE 3RD.

This state of affairs continued for some time, until Mr. Morris Toms was left entirely on his own; a mere youth, no older than some of your present Sergeants appeared on the scene and offered to help. Mr. Toms was evidently gifted with great foresight and able to weigh up a person's capabilities pretty accurately, for he gave this very young man full charge of the Company. Considerable difficulties were experienced, one of the greatest being that the Brigade Office would not sanction the appointment of Captain and for a while this young gentleman continued the work without the official appointment. At last the Red Tape was cut, and Mr. T. E. Flowman was gazetted as Captain of the 3rd Enfield. It was the finest day the 3rd has ever known, when Mr. Flowman entered the Brigade world, and the result of his hard work, and earnest devotion has placed your Company in the highest position of B.B. Companies (to be continued).
