Hymn:

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
 And I danced in the moon, and the stars and the sun;
 And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth.
 At Bethlehem I had my birth.

Dance then, wherever you may be,
 I am the Lord of the Dance, said he,
 And I'll lead you all wherever you may be,
 And I'll lead you all in the Dance, said he.

I danced for the scribe and the pharisee,
 But the would not dance and they wouldn't follow me.
 I danced for the fishermen, for James and John:
 They came with me and the dance went on.

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame;
 The holy people said it was a shame.
 They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high,
 And they left me there on a Cross to die.

I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black;
 It's hard to dance with the devil on your back.
 They buried my body and they thought I'd gone,
 But I am the Dance, and I still go on.

They cut me down and I leapt up high;
 I am the life that'll never, never die,
 I'll live in you if you'll live in me;
 I am the Lord of the Dance, said he.
