

THE BOYS' BRIGADE.

DEMONSTRATION

ROYAL . . .

ALBERT HALL,

THURSDAY, . . .

MAY 2nd, 1907.

CHAIRMAN

Major-General R. S. S.
BADEN-POWELL, C.B.

The Boys' Brigade.

Patron: H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES. Vice-Patron: His Grace the ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Honorary President: The Right Hon. the EARL OF ABERDEEN.

THE BOYS' BRIGADE was instituted in 1883 by Mr. W. A. Smith. From a small beginning of 30 Boys the movement has grown into a world-wide organisation numbering 95,000 Boys, of whom 55,000 are in the United Kingdom.

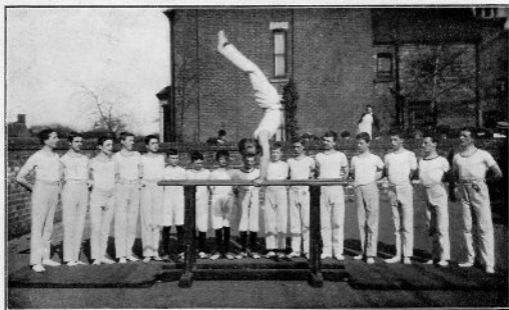

To quote from the Constitution the object of the Brigade is "the advancement of Christ's Kingdom among Boys, and the promotion of habits of obedience, reverence, discipline, self-respect, and all that tends towards a true Christian manliness."

The object is attained by using military organisation and drill as a means of attracting, training, and disciplining the Boys; by direct religious instruction in the Bible Class; by occupying the Boys' spare time with useful and elevating pursuits, and surrounding them with a healthy moral and religious atmosphere.

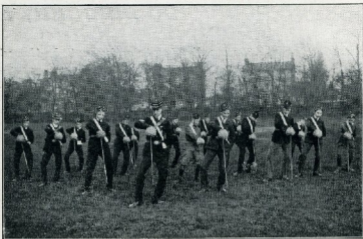

While the Bible Class and the Weekly Drill Meeting are the two distinguishing features of the work, attention is also given to Ambulance Work, Gymnastics, Instrumental Music, Reading and Recreation Rooms, Athletics, Swimming, and Summer Camps.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM.

The Summer Camps.

Last summer no fewer than 2,768 London Brigade Boys tasted the delights of a week or ten days' camp by the sea. Most of the Boys at the Demonstration to-night are hoping to go to Camp in the summer, and hundreds of them are saving up their spare pence for this purpose.

The total cost of these Camps is over £1,800, of which about one-half is paid by the Boys themselves. Thus £900 must be raised by the Officers and by the London Committee to maintain last year's figures; while with greater assistance from the public a far larger number of Boys—particularly those from the poorer districts—would be able to benefit by this health-giving respite from their daily work.

How the Public can Help.

1.—By forming new Companies.

Every Church should have a Company attached to it. Those interested in the welfare of the youth of the nation could not employ their leisure better than by devoting some of it to this work.

2.—By contributing to the Funds.

Subscriptions and donations are greatly needed for the general expenses of the organisation and for the London Camp Fund.

Contributions should be sent to the London Treasurer, Mr. A. F. Buxton, The Boys' Brigade, 34, Paternoster Row, E.C. Cheques to be crossed "Union of London and Smith's Bank."

BRASS BAND OF THE 1st WARLEY COMPANY.

"Daily Telegraph" Competition.

The "Daily Telegraph" Shield is awarded for one year for excellence in drill and "all-round" efficiency in Company work. Military Drill takes an important place in the Competition, and marks are also given for Bible Class, Ambulance Work, "Boys' Room," Band, Gymnasium, etc.

The preliminary rounds leave the 4th London and the 3rd Enfield Companies to compete to-night for the Shield. The marks already gained by these two Companies in subjects other than Drill are as follows:—

4th London Company...	231.
3rd Enfield Company ...	226.

Marks given to-night for Drill will be added to these, and the Company whose combined marks are highest will hold the Shield for one year.
